

JUL 27 1964

ORG 1: OAS
ECON 3-03 Cuba

Text of Cuba Resolution

Special to The New York Times
WASHINGTON, July 26—Following is the text of the American foreign ministers' resolution on Cuba:

Application of Measures to the Present Government of Cuba

The ninth meeting of consultation of ministers of foreign affairs serving as organ of consultation in application of the Inter-American Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance.

HAVING SEEN the report of the investigating committee designated on Dec. 3, 1963, by the Council of the Organization of American States, acting provisionally as organ of consultation, and

CONSIDERING:

That the said report establishes among its conclusions that "the Republic of Venezuela has been the target of a series of actions sponsored and directed by the Government of Cuba, openly intended to subvert Venezuelan institutions and to overthrow the democratic government of Venezuela through terrorism, sabotage, assault, and guerrilla warfare," and

That the aforementioned acts, like all acts of intervention and aggression, conflict with the principles and aims of the inter-American system,

RESOLVES:

1. To declare that the acts verified by the investigating committee constitute an aggression and an intervention on the part of the Government of Cuba in the internal affairs of Venezuela, which affects all of the member states.

2. To condemn energetically the present Government of Cuba for its acts of aggression and of intervention against the territorial inviolability, the sovereignty, and the political independence of Venezuela.

3. To apply, in accordance with the provisions of Articles 6 and 8 of the Inter-American Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance, the following measures:

A. The governments of the American states shall not maintain diplomatic or consular relations with the Government of Cuba;

B. The governments of the American states shall suspend all trade, whether direct or indirect, with Cuba, except in foodstuffs, medicines, and medical equipment that may be sent to Cuba for humanitarian reasons;

C. The governments of the American states shall suspend all sea transportation between their countries and Cuba, except for such transportation as may be necessary for reasons of a humanitarian nature.

4. To authorize the Council of the Organization of American States, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of its members, to discontinue the measures adopted in the present resolution at such time as the Government of Cuba shall have ceased to constitute a danger to the peace and security of the continent.

5. To warn the Government of Cuba that if it should persist in carrying out acts that possess characteristics of aggression and intervention against one or more of the member states of the organization, these states shall maintain their essential rights as sovereign nations by means of the use of individual or collective self-defense, which could go so far as resort to armed force, until such time as the organ of consultation takes measures to insure the peace and security of the continent.

6. To urge those states not members of the Organization of American States that are animated by the same ideals of the inter-American system to examine the possibility of effectively demonstrating their solidarity in achieving the purposes of this resolution.

7. To instruct the Secretary General of the Organization of American States to transmit to the United Nations Security Council the text of the present resolution, in accordance with the provisions of Article 54 of the United Nations Charter.